PRE-COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Choose a morning session from 9 am – 12 pm and/or an afternoon session from 1 pm – 4 pm, Monday through Friday.

MORNING 9 AM – 12 PM

Drawing Foundation
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA041  Tuition $835

Develop perceptual and pictorial skills that will further your art and design study. You will learn vital concepts of line, value, gesture, composition and perspective through basic drawing techniques and materials.

Figurative Drawing
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA034  Tuition $895

Develop strong composition and proportion skills through interpreting the human figure. Short drills will lead to longer poses and the development of more complete, detailed drawings.

This class uses both nude and clothed models.

Comic Book Illustration
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YIL021  Tuition $835

Write, draw and format comic art sequences like the pros in the style of your choice: action, manga, humorous, horror, autobiographical. Start with character designs and pencil layouts and finish with 10 x 15 inked pages. Learn how to put life in your figure drawings, energy into your action sequences and pacing into your panel arrangements.

Digital & Darkroom Photography
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YPDA030  Tuition $895

Discover the elements and principles used in making photographs rather than just taking photographs! Learn the settings and functions of your digital cameras, shooting techniques and Adobe Photoshop tools. You will also work in the darkroom, develop presentation and critique skills.

Bring a digital camera to the first class.

Basic Sewing
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFD021  Tuition $895

A great first step if you are interested in fashion design and garment construction, but are not experienced at sewing. Learn hand-sewing techniques, understanding patterns, and basic fashion terminology.

Fashion Trendspotting
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFD036  Tuition $835

Learn how fashion experts forecast upcoming trends through “on the street” research and inspiration. Gain fashion industry knowledge about trend services which help forecast key colors, prints, fabrics and more.

Jewelry Design & Small Metals
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA029  Tuition $895

Learn design techniques to create jewelry and small metal artworks. Technical information combined with creativity will allow you to create unique one-of-a-kind pieces.

Traditional Animation
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YPDA024  Tuition $835

Traditional Animation – the foundation for all animation – starts with a series of dynamic figure drawings broken down into key, extreme and in-between poses. Create your own characters in camera-ready drawings; shoot and screen them on video as animated pencil tests. Expand and refine your work as the course progresses. Students take home their original art and a DVD.
Painting Studio
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA043 Tuition $835
Learn painting fundamentals of color and composition through a variety of techniques for still life, landscape, and abstract creations.

Graphic Design Fundamentals
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YGD020 Tuition $835
Explore the world of graphic design – the visual language of everyday life – and learn design fundamentals to communicate concepts. Using design layouts, you will create posters, logos, package designs and more.

Fashion Design & Construction
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFD023 Tuition $895
Develop pattern drafting skills by learning how to draft and adjust basic sloper patterns, fitting muslin or toile and choosing the right fabric for your garment. You and your classmates will show your finished garments in the Friends & Family Day Fashion Show.

Fashion Industry Introduction
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFD300 Tuition $895
Learn about the exciting world of fashion: its terminology, history, designers, styles and trends, as well as design principles and the industry’s many career options.

Gaming Design
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA031 Tuition $835
Concept development, sketching, animation and basic programming are among the many skills you will develop for designing and building eye-catching, interactive games with the latest Web technologies.

Digital Animation
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA035 Tuition $835
Make the transition from traditional hand-drawn animation techniques to the digital world using Adobe Flash and After Effects. A continued emphasis on concept and character development and storyboards will strengthen student skills. A great next step if you have taken traditional animation classes in the past.

Basic Sculpture
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA061 Tuition $895
Build figurative and abstract sculpture through an introduction to a variety of tools and techniques as you work with clay and found objects.

Introduction to Illustration
Monday, July 7 – Friday, August 8, 2014
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YIL024 Tuition $835
Develop illustration skills and learn to be a creative visual thinker while you work on the types of projects that contemporary illustrators practice: animated characters, children’s books, movie storyboards, magazine covers and more.

Small studio classes provide students with a challenging and fun college experience.
Philadelphia Sketchbook
Fridays, July 11 – August 8, 2014
9 am – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA050 Tuition $380
Explore Philadelphia by sketching the landscape, architecture and people using a variety of materials and collage. Possible sites include the Italian Market, Penn’s Landing, South Street, Reading Terminal, Rodin Museum, Philadelphia Museum of Art and more. Expand your sketches to create larger in-class drawings.

Urban Photography
Fridays, July 11 – August 8, 2014
9 am – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA026 Tuition $435
Techniques, skills and principles for finding and capturing the photographic mood of the moment will be your focus as you explore Philadelphia’s many wonderful sites.
*Please bring a digital camera to the first class.

Drawing a Graphic Novel
Fridays, July 11 – August 8, 2014
9 am – 4 pm
Course Code: YIL027 Tuition $380
Explore your ideas, observations, experiences, and memories through sketches that will become your graphic narrative. Learn to compose comic pages while experimenting with pen and ink.

Most classes take off-site trips to artistic and cultural attractions close to Moore along the Parkway at no additional cost.

HIGH SCHOOL FIVE FRIDAYS
Take a class one day a week, on Fridays from 9 am – 4 pm.
HIGH SCHOOL ONE WEEK INTENSIVE CLASSES

Enroll in a class for one, two or three weeks.

General Information

CLASSES
All classes are studio based and held in Moore’s BFA class spaces. Flexible morning and afternoon classes are available. Students should plan to arrive approximately 15–20 minutes before the start of class on the first day.

ENROLLMENT
Class size is kept small with an approximate maximum of 15 students. Courses may sell-out quickly so please register early to guarantee availability.

FACULTY
Moore’s BFA faculty, BFA alumnae, certified art educators and practicing artists and designers teach our youth programs. Additionally, the Continuing Education department has dedicated professional staff for the Youth Programs, all with a background in art and education. For a complete listing of faculty and their scheduled youth course, please visit the Youth Programs section at www.moore.edu.

FAMILY & FRIENDS DAY
A fun-filled celebration of the summer accomplishments of our youth students! Parents, guardians and friends are invited on the last day of the semester to meet faculty and staff, visit classes, participate in art activities and more.

ART SUPPLIES
Art supplies are provided to students in courses for grades 1–8. Students in courses for grades 9–12 are required to purchase supplies and will receive a list of supplies needed on the first day of class. High school students will need an additional $25 – $50 (approximately) for art supplies.

CODE OF CONDUCT
Students are expected to follow general behavior rules of being respectful of each other, the instructor and staff, as well as the College facility. Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and Moore reserves the right to dismiss students from class. Students dismissed from the program do not receive refunds.

CLASS CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS
Moore College of Art & Design reserves the right to cancel courses, alter its curriculum, change instructors or modify tuition and fees for its programs. Portions of this publication are subject to change without notice. Courses that do not meet minimum enrollment will be cancelled and notification of such will be by phone and/or email. All fees and tuition will be refunded within 2 to 4 weeks for any cancelled class.

Moore's vibrant Center City Philadelphia campus is located just off Logan Square on Benjamin Franklin Parkway. Many of our youth classes take advantage of Moore's location by including off-site trips to arts and cultural attractions at no additional cost. Additionally, youth classes take advantage of Aviator Park and Logan Square, both located across the street from Moore, by holding classes in these outdoor areas when the weather permits.

Moore is a safe and manageable campus. Students can be dropped off in front of the College's main entrance on Race Street between 19th and 20th Streets where they will be greeted by College and youth programs staff. Students are dismissed from class and are instructed to wait in the College main lobby if they are being picked up.

GETTING HERE

Easy accessibility
Moore is conveniently located within a one to three block walk from SEPTA and Suburban Station regional rail lines.

On-street parking is available around our campus.
