The youth experience at Moore College of Art & Design is characterized by fun, stimulating new challenges to learn and grow. Our students discover and nurture their creativity in a beautiful campus setting along the picturesque Benjamin Franklin Parkway. The College’s Youth Programs, founded in 1921, continue a rich legacy of providing high-quality art and design educational experiences.

Boys and girls, and young men and women in grades 1 – 12 can enroll in an array of courses, including Animation, Ceramics, Computer Graphics, Drawing, Fashion Design, Fine Arts, Gaming Design, Illustration, Photography and Portfolio Preparation.

Make Moore your destination for fun and creativity. Please contact us for course suggestions, to schedule a campus visit or for additional information at 215.965.4030 or ce@moore.edu.

Sincerely,

Natalie Payne

NEW Pre-College Collective Sessions

Saturday pizza lunch sessions for 8th – 12th grade students to meet artists and designers working in a variety of fields such as animation, gaming, fashion, graphic design, photography, fine arts and more. Students get college and career advice and learn about the business of design.

High School Certificate Programs

Art & Design and Fashion Design Certificate programs are available for high school young adults. To earn the certificate you will need to enroll in the program and pay a one-time enrollment fee of $25. Take five classes within the desired certificate area within three years and you will receive special recognition from Moore College of Art & Design.

Portfolio Information and Reviews

Not sure how to prepare your portfolio for your art school applications? Portfolio Dos and Don’ts presentations are offered each semester and include examples of Admissions’ student work and digital portfolio presentation tips. A question and answer session follows each presentation and you will have an opportunity to sign up for a portfolio review to receive individualized feedback.

Work-Study Leadership Program

Apply for the high School Work Study Leadership program and develop skills as a classroom or office assistant in exchange for full-tuition, covering the cost for ONE three-hour class.
Summer Art & Design Institute (SADI)

Young women who have completed their sophomore, junior or senior year of high school may attend the Summer Art & Design Institute, a residential four-week summer pre-college program.

Benefits of SADI include:

• Focused attention on a specialized area of interest: Animation & Illustration, Fashion Design, Fine Arts: Painting & Printmaking, or Photography.
• The development of finished work for a student’s formal college admission portfolio.
• Exposure to the vibrant and exciting larger arts community in Philadelphia.
• 3.0 college credits upon successful completion of the program.

NEW Moore College BFA Scholarship Programs for Young Women

Any young woman who has completed her 10th or 11th year of high school and enrolls in at least two Pre-College Youth Programs classes during her 10th or 11th grade year will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship upon acceptance in full-time enrollment at Moore College of Art & Design. The scholarship is renewable for a maximum of $6,000.

Annual High School Artists Exhibition

All High School students may submit artwork for the annual spring artist exhibition. The exhibition is on view at The Galleries at Moore and students are invited to a special opening reception.
Pre-College Classes for High School Students

Classes support students portfolio development and foundation in the arts.

Pre-College High School Students

MORNING 9 AM – 12 PM

Portfolio Preparation
Saturdays, Fall and Spring Semesters
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA033 Tuition $380

Are you a student interested in building a portfolio for college admissions review? Then this class focusing on observational drawing skills like still-life drawing and portraiture as well as presentation skills is for you.

Fashion Essentials Boot Camp
Saturdays, Fall and Spring Semesters
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFD037 Tuition $380

Learn introductory elements of fashion industry terminology, designers and styles in this exciting course. After learning basic fashion elements students move on to forecasting upcoming fashion trends through fun “street style” assignments. End the course with hands on basic sewing skills as you combine all you have learned to construct a simple garment. A great introduction to Moore College’s fashion program.

Drawing Foundation
Saturdays, Fall Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA041 Tuition $380

Develop perceptual and pictorial skills that will further your art and design study. You will learn vital concepts of line, value, gesture, composition and perspective through basic drawing techniques and materials.

Digital Photography
Saturdays, Fall Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YPDA030 Tuition $435

Discover the elements and principles used in making photographs rather than just taking photographs! Learn the settings and functions of your digital cameras, shooting techniques and Adobe Photoshop tools. You will also develop presentation and critique skills. Bring a digital camera to the first class.

Raku Ceramics
Saturdays, Fall Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA039 Tuition $435

Learn to create forms using wheel throwing and hand building techniques then fire your ceramic pieces using the exciting ancient Japanese process of raku, a quick procedure that results in a unique luster and surface.

Fashion Concepts & Illustration
Saturdays, Spring Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFD022 Tuition $380

Develop a visual fashion collection through the exploration of history, trends and fashion designers. Start with a sketchbook to express your ideas then learn to illustrate the traditional fashion figure to create collection boards and finished portfolio illustrations.

Urban Photography
Saturdays, Spring Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YPDA026 Tuition $435

Techniques, skills and principles for finding and capturing the photographic mood of the moment will be your focus as you explore Philadelphia’s many wonderful sites. Please bring a digital camera to the first class.

Interior Design
Saturdays, Spring Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YID020 Tuition $380

Design interior spaces through an overview of space planning, color selection, finding materials, furniture and lighting in addition to developing drawing skills.

Sketch & Sculpture in Philadelphia
Saturdays, Spring Semester
9 am – 12 pm
Course Code: YFA062 Tuition $380

Be inspired by sketching at Philadelphia’s cultural institutions such as the Rodin Museum, Philadelphia Museum of Art, and Academy of Natural Sciences. Bring those sketches back to the studio and transform them into dynamic three-dimensional forms using traditional and non-traditional materials.
AFTERNOON 1 PM – 4 PM

Painting Studio
Saturdays, Fall and Spring Semesters
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA043  Tuition $380
Learn painting fundamentals of color and composition through a variety of techniques for still life, landscape, and abstract creations.

Fashion Design & Construction I
Saturdays, Fall and Spring Semesters
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFD023  Tuition $435
Develop pattern drafting skills by learning how to draft and adjust basic sloper patterns, fitting muslin or toile and choosing the right fabric for your garment. You and your classmates will show your finished garments in the Friends & Family Day Fashion Show.

Fashion Restyle
Saturdays, Fall Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFD030  Tuition $380
Learn introductory hand and machine sewing to balance art and creativity in this garment construction class. Produce new garments from old and new materials like vintage clothing and recycled supplies to create one-of-a-kind pieces. Sewing experience is not necessary.

Life Drawing
Saturdays, Fall Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA034  Tuition $435
Develop strong composition and proportion skills through interpreting the human figure. Short drills will lead to longer poses and the development of more complete, detailed drawings. This class uses both nude and clothed models.

Introduction to Web Design
Saturdays, Fall Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA036  Tuition $380
Learn the basic elements of web design, the software tools and coding skills. Through design layout and coding to content creation you will build a basic website. Programming experience is not necessary.

Traditional Animation
Saturdays, Fall Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA024  Tuition $380
Learn the fundamentals of concept development, character design and storyboards as you make artistic choices to bring simple images to life. Establish pace, energy and timing as you develop your individual style of drawing and transform your ideas into cinematic action!
Expressive Portraiture
Saturdays, Spring Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFA031 Tuition $435
Discover the proper methods to render realistic facial likeness and expressions. You will work with clothed models to further your observational and figurative drawing skills.

Gaming Design
Saturdays, Spring Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA031 Tuition $380
Concept development, sketching, animation and basic programming are among the many skills you will develop for designing and building eye-catching, interactive games with the latest Web technologies.

Introduction to Illustration
Saturdays, Spring Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YIL024 Tuition $380
Develop illustration skills and learn to be a creative visual thinker while you work on the types of projects that contemporary illustrators practice: animated characters, children’s books, movie storyboards, magazine covers and more.

Digital Animation
Saturdays, Spring Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YPDA035 Tuition $380
Make the transition from traditional hand-drawn animation techniques to the digital world using Adobe Flash and After Effects. A continued emphasis on concept and character development and storyboards will strengthen student skills. A great next step if you have taken traditional animation classes in the past.

Advanced Fashion Design Studio
Saturdays, Spring Semester
1 pm – 4 pm
Course Code: YFD037 Tuition $435
An open studio course for students that have completed basic sewing and flat patternmaking and would like to learn advanced construction skills. Students will have the opportunity to complete individual and unique projects with an emphasis on garment construction, draping and embellishment. This class has limited enrollment for individualized attention and includes a field trip to a local design studio. Students show their finished garments in the fashion show. Register early! Prerequisite: Basic Sewing and Fashion Design & Construction I.

“Not only did I have a good experience with the materials we used, but I liked meeting new people and developing connections. My teachers were great and I learned a lot.”
– D. Seang, Pre-College Student

General Information

CLASSES
All classes are studio based and held in Moore’s BFA class spaces. Flexible morning and afternoon classes are available. Students should plan to arrive approximately 15–20 minutes before the start of class on the first day.

ENROLLMENT
Class size is kept small with an approximate maximum of 15 students. Courses may sell-out quickly so register early to guarantee availability.

FACULTY
Moore’s BFA faculty, BFA alumni, certified art educators and practicing artists and designers teach our youth programs. Additionally, the Continuing Education department has dedicated professional staff for the Youth Programs, all with a background in art and education. For a complete listing of faculty and their scheduled youth course, please visit the Youth Programs section at www.moore.edu.

FAMILY & FRIENDS DAY
A fun-filled celebration of the accomplishments of our youth students! Parents, guardians and friends are invited on the last day of the semester to meet faculty and staff, visit classes, participate in art activities and more.

ART SUPPLIES
Art supplies are provided to students in 1-8 grade courses. Students in 9–12 grade courses are required to purchase supplies and will receive a list of supplies needed on the first day of class. High school students will need an additional $25 - $50 (approximately) for art supplies.

CODE OF CONDUCT
Students are expected to follow general behavior rules of being respectful of each other, the instructor and staff, as well as the College facility. Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and Moore reserves the right to dismiss students from class. Students dismissed from the program do not receive refunds.

CLASS CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS
Moore College of Art & Design reserves the right to cancel courses, alter its curriculum, change instructors or modify tuition and fees for its programs. Portions of this publication are subject to change without notice. Courses that do not meet minimum enrollment will be cancelled and notification of such will be by phone and/or email prior to the semester start date. All fees and tuition will be refunded within 2 to 4 weeks for any cancelled class.

Moore’s vibrant Center City Philadelphia campus is located just off Logan Square on Benjamin Franklin Parkway. Many of our youth classes take advantage of Moore’s location by including off-site trips to arts and cultural attractions at no additional cost. Additionally, youth classes take advantage of Aviator Park and Logan Square, both located across the street from Moore, by holding classes in these outdoor areas when the weather permits.

Moore is a safe and manageable campus. Students can be dropped off in front of the College’s main entrance on Race Street between 19th and 20th Streets where they will be greeted by College and youth programs staff. Students are dismissed from class and are instructed to wait in the College main lobby if they are being picked up.

GETTING HERE

Easy accessibility

Moore is conveniently located within a one to three block walk from SEPTA and Suburban Station regional rail lines. Discounted Center City parking is available on Saturdays.

On-street parking is available around our campus.
