ABOUT MOORE

Moore College of Art & Design educates students for careers in the visual arts. The BFA degree offers 9 majors in a career-focused approach that includes funded internships, leadership training, and rigorous studio and academic courses. Graduate programs in Art Education, Interior Design, and Studio Art offer master’s degrees in a unique low-residency structure.

Summer Art & Design Institute is a residential pre-college program for young women to study art and design while earning college credit. Young Artists Workshop offers a rich variety of year-round art and design courses for boys and girls grades 1–12. Art & Design Studios and Certificate Programs are offered evenings for adults enrolling for credit and Act 48 hours.

PROGRAM OF ACTIVITIES

2D & 3D STUDIOS
In studios facilitated by professional art faculty, participants focus on personal direction, experimentation, and individual point of view. Options include drawing, painting and mixed media.

CONTEMPORARY ART & LUNCH
Guest speakers address issues in contemporary art and relate them to the interests of young people. A presentation by the Barnes on Museum Resources is included.

MUSEUM & GALLERY VISITS
An open day provides the opportunity to tour the nearby Philadelphia Museum of Art, Barnes Foundation, and Philadelphia’s other outstanding cultural institutions.

OPTIONAL EVENING SESSIONS
Choices include: Extended Studio Time, Life Drawing Workshop, and Printmaking Workshop.

OPTIONAL EXTRA DAY
Participants may extend their stay through Sunday, July 7.

SPECIAL SESSION FOR PENNSYLVANIA ART TEACHERS
A special session for PA art teachers will focus on linking teaching practice to PA Arts and Humanities Standards.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION
Participants earn 3 graduate credits for Integrative Practices in Art Education continuing education hours.

TUITION: $550 (all inclusive)
$525 early registration before May 18
$35 optional extra day (July 7)

“Teachers Summer Institute was such a great renewal and validation for me.”

TEACHERS SUMMER INSTITUTE 2013:
INTEGRATIVE PRACTICES IN ART EDUCATION

Moore’s Teachers Summer Institute 2013 is designed to enhance the culture of teaching and empower learning in visual art. A professionally directed program of studio-based workshops offers art educators the opportunity to recharge batteries, deepen personal direction, hone skills, expand concept development, and discover new applications for educational practice.

PROGRAM OPPORTUNITIES
• Make art in an exciting studio setting
• Learn new skills and techniques
• Network with colleagues
• Explore issues in contemporary art
• Earn 3 graduate-level credits
• Earn professional continuing education hours

STUDIO & PANEL DISCUSSIONS
• Invigorate individual practice
• Strengthen the teaching experience
• Expand resources for curricular design

PENNSYLVANIA ART TEACHER’S SCHOLARSHIP FOR TSI PARTICIPANTS
Pennsylvania art teachers who participate in TSI will be given a unique scholarship to award to a graduating senior toward attending Moore’s BFA program in fall 2014. Celebrating Moore’s mission to support women artists in achieving their goals and honoring the role high school art teachers play in mentoring young artists, the Pennsylvania Art Teacher’s Scholarship for Excellence in the Arts was created to support incoming first year students who demonstrate exceptional potential. Each scholarship, in the amount of $5,000 per year, is awarded in the individual teacher’s name.
